It being an admitted fact, that "Money make money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Saving Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public and by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, man be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband the mall means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose own investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

TELL US WHAT CURED YOU.—Tired to death. When the sick die, everybody can tell what they died of. Is it not right, then, that when the sick recover, all the world should know what cured them? And yet thousands are cured of deadly ills by Bristol's Sarsaparilla, whom the public never hear. Cases that are proach the sublimity of miracles—such as that of the boy, James Wyckoff, who was literally wrenched from the jaws of death, when more than half devoured by scrofula—of course find their way into print. Perhaps a hundred such have startled society through the columns of leading journals and medical periodicals But Bristol's Sarsaparilla has wrought thousands-aye, tens of thousands, of cures, after physicians had shaken their heads and said, "no hope." Everywhere, at all seasons, it is silently working wonders. Would that, for the sake of humanity, the whole truth in relation to its properties were universally known. As a rule, Bristol's Sugar-coated Pill's should be used at the same time with the Sarsaparilla. They take off from the system the diseased humors secreted in the latter. cj—a7

London, March 9th.

Parliament was opened on the 5th by commission, and without creating much public excitement. About a hundred peers were sworn in. In the House of Commons Mr. Chaplin moved, and Lord Henry Cavendish seconded, the re-election of Mr. Brand as Speaker, which was carried with acclamation.

Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh met a hearty welcome on Saturday, first at Gravesend and afterwards at Windsor. The Duchess, though she was evidently fatigued by the long journey and by the excitement of a popular reception, looked well as she smiled her acknowledgments. The Queen, meeting her Imperial daughter-in-law at the Windsor Station, kissed her affectionately on both cheeks. Yesterday the Duke and Duchess attended Divine service in St. George's Chapel.

Coomassie has been burnt, and the English army sent to punish the Ashantees is now on its homeward march. Sir Garnet Wolseley was driven to this severe measure by the continued duplicity of King Koffee.

The latest Viceregal telegram from India gives an account of the situation and prospects of the distressed districts as far as they can be ascertained. Lord Northbrook expects at the worst period of the famine—from May to August—to have three millions of people on the hands of the Government. Rice has been ordered to the amount of 420,000 tons, and is being distributed at the rate of 2,000 to 2,500 tons per day. The estimate of famine expenditure to the end of February is 2½ millions stg.

A private telegram from Calcutta states that the Central Famine Relief Fund has reached £80,000. It is denied that serious mortality has yet occurred anywhere.

The Prince and Princess of Wales arrived safely at Dover yesterday morning, and travelled thence by special train to Charing-cross. The children of their Royal Highnesses returned during the day from Windsor to Malborough House.

The Government have decided that Dr. Livingstone's body shall be brought home at the public expense. Lord Derby telegraphed instructions to Aden on the 27th of last month, and the body will probably arrive in England in five or six weeks. A memorial will shortly be presented to the Dean of Westminster, requesting permission for the interment of the body in the Abbey.

Respecting the transport of live cattle from South America, the Times has the following letter:—

"Falmouth, March 3, 1874.

"Sir—I have much pleasure in informing the public, through the medium of the Times, that a steamer is shortly expected at this port from the River Plate, with a cargo of cattle, to test once more the practicability of obtaining a supply of live meat from South America.

"As the originator and earnest advocate of this trade, the study of which has unceasingly occupied my attention during the last six years, I may be excused for explaining that the apparent failure of the cargo originally imported in my chartered steamer, the Ariadne, four years ago, arose from a variety of circumstances capable of ready amendment and improvement, and the prices subsequently fetched by the cattle, and their condition, perfectly justified a further trial. This I have hitherto been prevented from doing by want of funds alone. The present undertaking has been initiated by a native of Buenos Ayres, and should it succeed, I propose to immediately seek the co-operation of such of the public as are interested in extending the sources of our foreign meat supply, towards the formation of a company to develope the trade, in steamers adapted for the purpose, in conjunction with the favourable arrangements for outward cargo from England (a most important feature in the business—which I am in a position to influence), a combination that can be proved highly profitable to the investor."

On receiving the freedom of the Turners' Company Sir Samuel Baker gave a valuable statement of his views on the promotion of legitimate trading, and the suppression of the slave trade in Central Africa. As to the former, he declared that the main requisite was for the Africans to see an English company, protected by law, paying fairly and dealing fairly.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

The First Session of the Ninth Parliament of the Queen was opened on March 5th, Her Majesty being represented by Commissioners, consisting of the Lord Chancellor, the Duke of Richmond, Earl Beauchamp, the Marquis of Hertford and the Earl of Bradford. Their Lordships took their seats on the woolsack in the House of Lords at two o'clock, and at once the Commons were summoned and soon after appeared at the bar with their chief clerk, Sir Erskine May, at their head. The Royal Commission having been read, the Lord Chancellor said he had Her Majesty's command to let them know that as soon as the members of both Houses should have been sworn the causes for calling this Parliament would be declared, and that, it being necessary that a Speaker should be first chosen, it was her pleasure that they should proceed to the choice of some proper person to fill that position and present him in their Lordships' House this day at 2 o'clock for Her Majesty's approbation.

The Commons then withdrew, and the peers present took the oath usually administered on the assembling of a new Parliament. On the Commons returning to their own House, which was greatly crowded, they proceeded, in accordance with the command of Her Majesty, to the election of a Speaker.

Mr. Chaplin, one of the members for Lincolnshire, who sat in the first row behind the Treasury bench, proposed the re-election of the Right Hon. Henry Brand, the Speaker of the House, who possessed in an eminent degree the requisite qualifications of firmness and impartiality, an accurate knowledge of the business of the House, a natural courtesy, a high sense of honour, and great experience. He was satisfied that, with Mr. Brand in the chair, the House of Commons would maintain in the future the great reputation which it had enjoyed in the past, and not only did he feel confident that the right hon. gentleman would compare not unfavourably with the most distinguished of his predecessors, but he predicted that he would add even fresh lustre to the office.

The motion was seconded by Lord G. Cavendish, who in the course of his remarks made a graceful allusion to the absence from the new Parliament of Sir George Grey, Colonel Wilson Patten, and Mr. Bouverie. He was much gratified at the fact that party feeling had not been allowed to interfere with the election to the chair of one whom all believed to be the best man for the place.

Mr. Brand, who spoke from the front Opposition bench below the gangway, said he should shrink from undertaking the office if he were not confident that he should receive the support of the House; for that support was the only sure foundation for the moral authority of the speaker. Without it he was powerless, but with it his weakness became strength. Should the House see fit to elect him a second time, he should deem it a special honour, because the choice would have come recommended by both sides of the House, thus doubling, so to speak, the obligation. Whoever filled the office of speaker was bound to keep party attachments in abeyance, and speaking for himself he assured the House that he yielded to no man in the desire to discharge the duties of the chair impartially.

The mover and seconder then conducted Mr. Brand to the chair, which the right hon. gentleman assumed in the midst of loud and general cheering.

Mr. Gladstone, who was vociferously cheered by the Opposition, dwelt a few minutes on the importance of the Speaker's office and the peculiar fitness of Mr. Brand to discharge its functions, and concluded with the utterance of his conviction that all sides would vie with one another in supporting the authority of the Speaker and strengthening his hands in the performance of his duties.

THE DESTRUCTION OF COOMASSIE.

Although King Koffee has neither surrendered, nor been captured, and although he has not signed a peace—his palace and his capital have been burned, and the victors have retreated beyond the reach of a treacherous climate. Sir Garnet knew that the streams in his rear would soon be swollen. He therefore determined to burn the town, blow up the palace, cross the intervening rivers, and send his European troops on the road to the coast. That work was accomplished, without let or hindrance, and on the 9th of February, according to his latest-received telegram, Sir Garnet halted at a point north of the Adansi Hills with, as he states, 'the native troops,' leaving us to infer that the British regiments had continued their march towards the Prah. The reason for this halt was that a messenger had arrived from the King, 'requesting peace;' and the Major General decided to stand fast until the 13th or 14th 'to allow time for negotiations.'

The closing scenes of the campaign will be found in the despatches. After the battle of Amoaful and the capture of Bequah, Sir Garnet organised a flying column on the 3rd of February, and, taking five days' provisions, advanced to the Ordah river. Here he received fresh overtures from the King, promising agreement with the proferred terms if the General would not cross the water and enter Coomassie. He offered hostages, the indemnity, and certain prisoners in his power; but he would not give up his mother and brother, who, he said, 'are my both counsellors and helpers in every way.' Sir Garnet answered promptly, saying to the King, 'You have deceived me so before that I can't halt until the hostages are in my possession. As time presses, I will consent to accept for to-day your mother and Prince Mensah. Both shall be well treated by me. You can trust my word. If you send them to me I will halt my army on this side the Ordah. Unless you send them at once, my army will march upon Coomassie.' This succinct despatch did not move King Koffee, except to resistance. The Ashantees had occupied a strong position about the village of Ordasu. The English General had to build a bridge over the river. When the Highlanders began to move they were soon brought to a standstill, and the obstinacy displayed by the Ashantees rendered a general action inevitable. Early in the morning the Rifles carried Ordasu. So little, however, were the Ashantees beaten at this period—that they once more advanced on all sides, and our soldiers could only hold their ground; but at length, the Highlanders dashing forth, 'with pipes playing,' the position was carried. Shortly afterwards the enemy fell into panic, fled in complete rout, and, 'we,' says Sir Garnet, 'followed close on the enemy's heels into Coomassie.' Thus, after two sharp combats, the little handful which started from the Prah were masters of the Ashantee capital. The King had fled, none knew whither. Our troops were fatigued and thirsty; but at six o'clock on the 4th of February they formed up in the main street of Coomassie and gave three cheers for the Queen.

Having obtained possession of Coomassie, Sir Garnet Wolseley was compelled to act with decision. He could not long remain there. He had taken only five day's supplies from his camp, and two had been consumed when his triumph was accomplished. Sir Garnet then took the right course by burning and blowing up the capital.

LATEST FROM PARAGUAY.

FULL PARTICULARS OF REVOLUTION.

Asuncion, March 31st.
(8 a.m.)

There is a happy land, and that is Paraguay, at least for some. Another revolutionary rumpus has just arisen, and as many of your readers are interested, no doubt, in the affairs of this country, I will give you a few particulars of what has actually taken place.

Since the new Ministry was formed things have not gone on very smoothly, particularly so since Mr. Gill came to fill the post of Minister of Finance, and the Cabinet was therefore to a certain extent divided, President Jovellanos and Gill going hand in hand, Ministers Caballero, Barreira and Soteras against them, and Serrano and the Gefe Politico Escobar remaining more or less neutral. Jovellanos and partner would have liked to domineer over all the rest, but seeing themselves the weaker party, changed their tactics, and after a time talked Serrano over to their side. This equalised somewhat the two parties, and having met with that success, they endeavored to do the same with Escobar, who, by the way, is commander of the forces, and was if anything inclined to favor Jovellanos, and they concluded they had him all right, although as you will see they calculated wrongly. Thinking themselves now in a powerful position and able to do what they all along desired, Messrs. Jovellanos and party held a private meeting in Minister Gill's house late on the evening of the 29th, and came to the resolution to turn out their adversaries at once. Accordingly President Jovellanos issued a decree dismissing Ministers Caballero, Barreiro and Soteras, at the same time elevating the Gefe Politico to Minister of War and Marine, and appointing other Ministers from amongst his own friends, with a new Gefe Politico in the form of Mr. Gill's brother. This decree was not published until early on the morning of the 30th, and, prior to sending copies to the dismissed Ministers or giving it circulation, they sent a copy to Escobar, Gefe Politico, along with his appointment as Minister of War and Marine. He, however, seems to have resolved to stick to his colors, and without either answering decree or nomination, at once lays both documents before Caballero and Barreiro, who, able for the occasion, hurry off and take possession of the Policia, put all the soldiers in arms and under their sole orders. Jovellanos after issuing the decree evidently feared a 'row,' and therefore hurried off with Gill and Serrano to the house of the Brazilian Minister, where they remained until the evening without even shewing face. All the Government offices are shut with the exception of General Caballero's rooms. During the day various conferences have taken place between the Brazilian and Argentine Ministers at which Caballero and Barreiro were present, but up till now they have ended in nothing. The feeling of the Brazilians is with Jovellanos. Gill and Co. of course, but that of the Argentines and Italians is with the others. Meantime the latter have improved their opportunity and have the troops as well as the whole town in their possession. The Permanent Commission called Congress to meet at eight o'clock last night, but as yet nobody knows what, or it anything, has really been decided, although there are some rumours that Jovellanos and Gill, have to resign and a provisional President be appointed. However later on to-day it is very likely something definite will be known. I have heard it mentioned that at the time Jovellanos issued his decree he sent the Argentine Consul, Dr. Gallegos, his passports, with notice to leave the capital, but this requires confirmation.

Business, which for a long time back had been very dull, and was just beginning to recover from the effects of the last revolutions, is now quite paralysed, many of the offices and stores having closed, and a very general want of gold being felt—but that of course is only temporary, for no doubt the Scientific Commission, which has been here for the past few weeks, will be able to inform us in which part of the Republic that precious metal can be found in unlimited supplies; but unfortunately as yet the gentlemen of that Commission have not been able to make a start, firstly, from a want of the necessary funds from the Government, and secondly, on account of the very heavy rains we have had lately. Yesterday the Government was to have supplied them with the requisite cash, but owing to the rumpus there was nobody in the Treasury office to pay them, and no Minister of Finance to apply to, so there will be more delay until the political department is shut.

The railway is still in the same state—no trains running. The new manager has more to do than he is able, and although very active and pushing, is quite unaccustomed to railway affairs. The late able manager enters upon the administration of the tramway, which has now been running for over a year under the management of one of the best men in S. America, and who, to the regret of all, leaves us, probably by next steamer, for Buenos Ayres.

Until next opportunity

LATEST NEWS.

1st April, 1874.
8 a.m.

The steamer postponed her sailing until this morning, being unable to take in cargo yesterday on account of the heavy rains.

Yesterday an arrangement was come to between the President and the Ministers, or I should rather say, forced, which was, Minister Soteras to be turned out, Caballero to resign the Ministry of Interior and accept that of Worship, Serrano to fill that of Interior, Barreiro to remain as formerly, and Escobar to take War and Marine, Don Emilio Gill, a brother of the famous financier, to be Gefe Politico. Although this kind of arrangement was highly unsatisfactory to the Red party, still it was thought quietness would be restored. When the new Gefe Politico however went to take possession of the Policia, the soldiers and officers there refused him admittance. Returning shortly afterwards with Escobar, former Gefe, and with order from Caballero to receive the place, still the soldiers and officers refused, and told him plainly the only place they would give him if he returned again would be that of prisoner. The whole troops, and I may say all the officers, are perfectly willing to follow Caballero and Barreiro anywhere, but they emphatically refuse to have over them as Gefe a man who at enmity with them all, would have entire power over over them to punish them as he chose. The only question therefore is with the soldiers and officers, who yesterday and up till now hold the town in their possession. If Gill however can get sufficient money to pay the troops he will win the day. Jovellanos returned to his house late on the evening of the 30th, and has remained in obscurity ever since with a Brazilian guard of 25 men in the corridor.

The dismissal of the Argentine Consul is so far confirmed that it has just appeared in the Boletin Oficial. Congress called for ten o'clock.

The sale of Carrere's luxurious furniture took place on the 4th, by order of the judge. When the mansion was opened for this purpose it was found that everything of value not too bulky had been abstracted, since attached! Even so, the few remaining articles realized 15:000$.

Carrere's agent here has made great sacrifices to prevent Carrere's being declared bankrupt, a bankruptcy which would be classed "fraudulent." The medical gentleman to whom Carrere proved his "eternal gratitude" by swindling him has been settled with out of court, he having obtained two sentences in his favor, and being in a position to bring affairs to an inconvenient crisis.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The "beautiful Boyne," R.M.S., Captain Reeks, arrived in port yesterday morning, bringing the Pacific steamer Sarata's news from Lisbon to the 18th ult., which is five days later than her own from the same port. Better still, the Boyne brings £200,000 in gold. The news from used up Europe is good. The Ashantee war is over: King Koffee has stumped up part of the indemnity, and our troops are by this time at home again. Our distinguished countryman, Sir Garnet Wolsely, deserves well of his country for making such a "veni vidi vici" business of the affair. Things are in a "touch and go" state in old Spain, where a decisive battle on a large scale between the Carlists and the Republicans was hourly expected when the steamer was leaving Lisbon. The Boyne is posted to sail homeward this day week, the 14th instant.

The financial fizzle at the Mount has been wound up for the moment, the defaulting house's assets and liabilities meeting each other minus 100,000 pats and all their Bolsa creditors 'stuck' for an aggregate amount which is put down at various figures. 'On dit' that more favourable news has come out about the 5,000,000 pounds sterling Loan, and that Jones is the man that did it, or is to do it. We knew it from the first. We have always had unlimited faith in the ability and STANDARD luck of every member of this well-known family.

Don Luis Dominguez, ex Chancellor of the National Exchequer and now Argentine Minister Plenipotentiary to Peru, left on Sunday for Montevideo, to catch the Pacific steamer Sorata for the West Coast. H E. was accompanied by two of his sons, who go as Secretary of Legation and Attaché.

We give in another column full particulars of the latest revolutionary flare-up in Paraguay. Also a 'precis' of the recent diplomatic correspondence on the Chilian question, by which it will be seen that the matter is still in 'statu quo,' notwithstanding the fire-eating articles on the subject lately published by some of our local colleagues.

An English gentleman, who has just escaped with his life and incurable indigestion from quarantine on the classic island of Martin Garcia, brought tears to our eyes on Saturday evening by a description of his sojourn in that delectable spot. The filthy old 'casillas' transported from Ramos Mejia, and which the authorities jocosely call a lazzaretto, are the dwellings of the first class passengers. The meals are sent to table in a big tin pantikin—meat, potatoes, vegetables and bread all mixed up together. There are no knives or forks, and all help themselves with their fingers, on the same principle as practised by the jackass when he danced amongst the chickens—'every man for himself,' etc. Tin mugs are the only drinking utensils; and undrinkable 'vino,' the acidity of which would destroy the coating of a rhinoceros's stomach, is the only potable, barring a very dear bottle of that odious compound, 'cerveza del pais,' now and then. The table is a long deal one, not over clean; it boasts of three legs, and a walking stick or umbrella has to do duty for a fourth. There are no chairs, but rough benches six inches higher at one extremity than the other, so that when the fortunate occupants of the higher side stand up to say grace, those at the lower end roll on the floor. If any one wander outside what is called the 'cordon,' a dirty sentinel either rams the barrel of his musket down his throat, or he is isolated till the next batch of victims when he has to undergo another quarantine. Such are the delights of quarantine in the lazzaretto at Martin Garcia—at two pats. per diem.

That excellent publication the Anales de Agricultura is up to its usual mark in its last monthly number. An Imperial Southdown sheep, reared in Prussia, is the frontispiece, followed by an agricultural calendar for the month, and instructive articles on Maize, New Towns, The Garden, Wheat and what not.

The death of the venerable head of the Llavallol family on Saturday last at Flores threw a gloom over every circle when the sad event became known on Sunday. A special train conveyed the remains on Sunday evening to the town residence of the family, and the funeral took place yesterday, the attendance being very large, showing the high esteem in which the deceased gentleman was held by all classes.

The Catalinas mole is being pushed ahead splendidly, and will be run out three squares farther. The work already finished is splendidly done. The huge wooden piles used up to the present have come from Paraguay; but they showed a tendency to split in driving, and railway rails bolted together on an ingenious system devised by Mr. Moore, C.E., are now being used as the mole is pushed out. All the planking used is pickled wood from England, which lasts almost for ever. There are from 40 to 50 men, all English, and mostly sailors, employed daily in driving the piles. Peones of other nationalities were tried, but they would not do, two of them, Italians, being nearly killed the very first day they went to work, one from awkwardness in handling a winch, the other by falling through a Hole in the Mole. The foreigners have also a great dread of working over the water, and dislike jumping into it when necessary for the work, whilst 'Jack' takes to it as his native element, and polishes off his grog afterwards with increased gusto from his dip. Of course the 'tars' earn much higher daily wages than were paid to the peons, but the work is properly done, which is cheaper in the long run.

The weather on Easter Sunday was heavenly, and the whole town turned out to enjoy it. Trains and trams, carriages, carts and every available conveyance in the city were pressed into service for the pleasures of the day. Some picnic parties were to be seen at the Tigre, and signs of unbending after the sackcloth and ashes of Lent were observable everywhere. Business was resumed yesterday with increased 'vim' and the big lot of gold by the Boyne gave an impulse to everything.

House property is getting cheaper. See Mr. Ebbeke's auction sales in Calle Callao on Sunday. These are significant, for if there is a hammer man in town able to extract high prices from bidders it is Mr. Ebbeke. The French Minister's house is a prodigious bargain at the money paid for it.

The extreme of inconvenience was suffered by half the families in town on Good Friday and the following day through the absurd Municipal regulation prohibiting horsemen from going through the streets, even early in the morning. The 'lecheros' and bakers had to carry round their wares on foot, and for the former this was almost if not wholly impossible, the result being tea without milk or butter for everyone, and more serious consequences to invalids and families. It is all right and proper to stop the traffic of carriages and horsemen for a few hours, in obedience to the religious customs of the people; but to cut off the supply of necessaries of daily life is carrying the matter too far. As well, and better, stop the railway trains and tramways. Many persons smarting under the inconvenience referred to pertinently asked on Friday why aristocratic equipages in hundreds were allowed to dash through the streets carrying fashionables to their fashionable devotions all day long, while the poor milkmen were arbitrarily deprived of two days earnings and the public greatly inconvenienced. It is to be hoped that this 'one law for the rich and outher for the poor' will be modifiest next Leut.

The 7.30a.m. up train from Lomas on Sunday ran over a bullock between Lanus and Barracas. The engine and one carriage were thrown upside down into the ditch, but strange to say, neither the engine driver, stoker, nor passengers (3) were seriously injured. The line was cleared in 40 minutes.

Sunday once more? Quousque tandem? On Sunday night a benighted individual took it into his head to have a cool bath, but unfortunately remained just exactly half an hour too long in the water. Doctors were called, but found wanting, and then our friend Professor Murray was boned, to see the supposed corpse. He took the requisite remedies for such a case, and after half an hour's work, brought the man to life. Next morning the man felt so well that he bolted, forgetting to pay his bill either to the hotel or for the medicines. Such is life!

THE LATE Mr. LLAVALLOL.

The death of Don Felipe Llavallol will be heard with regret among all classes in the River Plate, deceased having long occupied a prominent rank among the merchants of B. Ayres and only recently retired from active business after a life-time devoted to commerce. The house of which he was head went by the firm of Jayme Llavallol and Sons, having been established in the last century by his father, a native of Barcelona, who fully maintained the reputation of business enterprise that the Catalans enjoy over all other classes of Spaniards. For nearly a 100 years the house of Llavallol has been the foremost in trade with the Mother Country, acquiring great wealth and influence by its uniform integrity, and now after three generations it represents one of the great fortunes for which Buenos Ayres is so favorably known abroad.

Nor is it merely with the trade of our port that the name of Llavallol is honorably associated. Enterprises of great importance, such as the Harbor-works at San Pedro, vast estancias at Las Hermanas and elsewhere, agricultural colonies in Santa Fe, and a considerable amount of capital in banks, gas-works, railways, steamers &c shew the energetic character and solid wealth of the family, of which the deceased was head.

Don Felipe Llavallol was a representative man, preserving all the good qualities of the old Spanish stock, and also keeping pace with the progress of the age. Although he never took an active part in politics he was named as Provisional Governor of Buenos Ayres to sign the treaty of San Jose de Flores, in November 1859, which saved our city from being sacked by the victorious army of the Confederation. He was several times Director of the Provincial Bank, and was well-known in charitable circles as a leading member of the Vincent de Paul Society. He died suddenly of heart-disease while returning from the devotions of Holy Saturday at the Cathedral, in his carriage to Flores. He had passed the allotted term of 3-score years and ten, without even having been for a day ill, and died calmly in his daughter's arms before the carriage reached his home. Requiescat in pace.

ON 'CHANGE.

April 6th, 1874.

Ounces	400
Sovs	122½
Pats	25
Nat. Bonds	81
Cedulas	84½

The news of very heavy specie remittances, per Boyne, gave a favourable turn to the market, and at the opening things looked very stiff. Some specie-loving people circulated all sorts of rumours about the gold on board. The STANDARD telegram only announced £200,000. Even the agents put up a notice on the board confirming this statement; but the news amongst the brokers was that the Boyne had brought

To Government	£200 000
To Santa Fe Government	200,000
To Mercantile Bank	25,000
To various import houses	50,0 0
	£475 000

This, however, proved all nonsense, and towards noon all the gold on board came ashore—twenty boxes consigned to his Excellency Sr Bassabilbaso and which went at once into the Provincial Bank. Many parties on 'Change stated that this is the balance of the City Improvements loan, and this was very generally believed, as Mr Aguirre and family are on board. Mr Williamson, of the leading firm of Milligan and Williamson, is also on board. All are in quarantine.

The sales to-day were—

Cedulas.
For cash	9,500	84⅜
do	94,0 0	84½
For end month	10,000	84⅝
do	6,000	85
do	120,000	84⅞
do	60,000	85
do	20,000	84⅞
May 31st	15,000	85⅛
April 15th	25,000	84⅜

In the liquidation the following sales—

10,000	end of month	84⅜.
50,000	do	84⅜, sellers.

10,000 against 6,000 off red to-day on 'Change that Cedulas throughout this year dont touch 80. No one took the bid.

Some large advances made on Cedulas at ⅛, the stock valued at 75.

Exchange looks better; bills passed on England at 49½-¼; on Antwerp, 5.21; on Paris, 5.19.20.

The Boyne has had a fine run out; she entered Montevideo at 10.30 p.m. on the 4th of April and had 291 passengers at Rio, and £276,000 in sovereigns. The Neva was at Bahia on the 29th March; all well.

The screw steamer Gomes, with cable for the Brazil and Platense Company, was to leave St. Vincent on the 19th March for Rio.

The Boyne brings news of the cable being laid between Madeira and St Vincent, and messages were sent over the cable on the 18th. Junction between Madeira and Lisbon not completed. All the European troops have embarked from Gold Coast, and are on their return to England.

From the city article of our colleague the Times—London, 9th March—we take the following—

"Saturday Evening.

"The Stock Exchange was closed to day, and no transactions were recorded in public securities.

"There was a good demand for money for a Saturday at 3½ to ½ per cent for first class three months bills.

"The sum of £476,000 in sovs. was withdrawn from the Bank for South America, including £200,000 on account of the Santa Fe loan; and £21,000 chiefly in sovs. was sent in.

"The steamer Boyne will take on Monday £276,550 in gold for Brazil."

Mr. Saunders has returned from Rosario, having succeeded in obtaining in that city one of its most respectable firms to represent there the London and Lancashire Fire Insurance Co.

The steamer Leguisamon cleared to-day. What with freight and subsidy we hear she earns eleven thousand pats. a trip. Two more steamers for the same company are now being put together.

The news this evening from Paraguay is that the Government up there has cancelled the Argentine Consul's exequatur. We give the 'boletin' in another column.

The week has opened with the arrival of two hundred thousand sterling for the Government, which is a help to the market, and more still has to come out on the same account. The Boyne entered port this morning, having stopped in Montevideo only a few hours. We suppose the gold on board did this. The news by the Boyne is rather favorable, and, according to our telegram, there is a probability of the Bank rate in London being reduced, which means much, and may probably lead to the realisation of the Oriental loan, and the launching of the Rosario Railway. In fact, some of the most experienced brokers in this market offer to bet that before June the Oriental loan will be done.

The Sorata's news came by telegram from Pernambuco to Rio, and was brought down to the Plate by the Boyne. The news will be found in our telegram.

The mails from Montevideo were most important. The Revista Mercantil publishes a long article on the Bolsa and the scandals of April 1st. It gives a long and detailed account of all that was done to arrange the liquidation and wind up the Bolsa liabilities of Messrs. Essing and Lima. First of all, there was a kind of subscription got up amongst the following parties to square the matter:

Araucho & Israel	$5000
Butler & Fries	5000
Varela & Arana	2000
Anderson & Farrell	5000
A. Hoffmann	300
Tomas de Urrutia	2000
J. Davison	1000
A. S. Agustini	1000
Paullier Hnos	1000
Nocetti & Azzano	1500
Enrique Platero	1500
Latorre & Cesar	1500
Winternitz & n	500
L. B. Schein r	500
Ricardo Lavieva	600
Oliver & Veiga	1000
	$32,'00

It seems the total liabilities of Essing and Lima, on the Bolsa, amounted to $f.55,150, but after fruitless efforts the subscription amounted to nothing, and Mr. Anderson, of the firm of Anderson and Farrell, proposed that instead of this mutual relief fund all parties creditors and debtors of Essing and Lima liquidate at a fixed figure of 58½. Finally this was adopted, and the following paper signed—

"In Montevideo, on the 1st of April, 1874, the brokers of the Bolsa being assembled to arrange the liquidation of March, in consequence of the suspension of Essing and Lima, resolved that all creditors of the firm balance their accounts at the rate of 58½, and that the debtors of the firm balance their accounts at the same figure, 58½, and in witness whereof they sign this document.

Anderson & Farrell,
C. M. Bond,
A. Suarez,
Paullier Hnos,
T. de Urrutia,
A. S. Agustini,
Julian Alvarez,
Brown & Frias,
A.B. Blandim & Co.
J. rge Davison,
Varela and Arrue,
Oliver & Veiga,
G. R. Gepp."

It seems that a portion of the once famed Buschenthal quinta has passed into the hands of Essing and Lima for Bolsa differences, and they in turn have mortgaged it to a German house. Although the Bolsa differences are only put down at 51,3095f. the house has failed for a million of patacones, and people say that off the Bolsa everything is secured; if so the failure is most trifling, but on the Bolsa here it is believed to be a most disastrous affair, and some parties are said to be in to the extent of five hundred thousand pats., which seems an exaggeration.

At foot hereof will be found the Hypothecary Bank balance for March. It will be seen that the total emission for the month was only 250,000 Cedulas, quite a small amount. The following table will show the working of the bank—

Cedulas in circulation, A:

In December	1873	10,891,7'0
January	1874	10,813,900
February	"	11,126,800
March	"	11,370,0 0

The total amount of Cedulas annulled 817,350 pats. Mortgagors must take note that the interest on their mortgages must be paid on or before 15th inst.

A leading export merchant has called our attention to the reported sale of from 60 to 80,000 salted hides which we published the other day, and which we received from two wholesale hide brokers; on enquiry we learn that the total sales in these days of salted hides only sum up to between 30 and 40,000 hides.

Mr. Ebbeke held yesterday an auction in the square between the Callao, Rio Bamba, Santa Fe and Charcas streets, and realised the following sales—

First house occupied by the French Minister Calle Charcas 503 and 505, 34 by 71 varas, for $110,000 buyer Mr. Nicanar Mendez for Mr. Henry Schneidewind.

Second house Calle Callao 196, $65,500 buyer Mr. John Cowes.

Third do. do. 192/4, $64,000 do Julio Clazabal.

Fourth do. do. 190, $57,500 do Dom. Yanelli.

Fifth do. do. 188, $60,000 do Silva.

Each of these four houses 8½ by 30 varas with three rooms, kitchen etc.

Another small house Calle Charcas 511, 7 by 26 varas with three rooms, kitchen etc. a 56,000, buyer Mr. Arenales

The balance sheet of the Provincial Bank for March is not yet out. The specie on hand in the treasury, we hear, was two million pats., and in the Oficina de Cambios about seven millions

The last statement published of the Banco Hipotecario of Montevideo gives 355,124 pats as the total issue of Cedulas in circulation in the Montevidean market. It seems the Cedulas never took much hold in the Mount.

Many of the creditors of Montravel's Caja de Credito Bank are anxious to know why the affairs are not wound up. We suppose the hitch is the courts.

The hide question in Entre Rios still continues, and it seems the various comisiones will keep the hides up there for another month or so, owing to the interminable question about marks. Money at all the entre Rios towns is very abundant; shopkeepers as busy as possible. It appears that some 800,0.0 pats. have been paid out by the National Government to the soldiers; no wonder money is easy in Entre Rios.

Captain Wright, of the Chupat schooner Irene, has arrived up from the Welsh colony with a cargo of butter, hides, skins &c. We hear that Messrs. Rooke and Parry have opened a house of business down there; this is rather good news, and shows that things are going ahead down there. We hold for to-morrow our correspondent's letter from there; the advices are most favorable.

Discount brokers report money plentiful enough for first-class paper; all the banks discounting, all the first-class trade bills offered, and in absence of that advancing on Cedulas.

The amorization of Nat. Bonds will take off the market a out 180,000 bonds, which will be a great help to this market The amorization, it is thought, will be done at 80-81

The following are our latest market advices, from Rio—

"Exchange—Soon after the departure of the Cotopaxi our market was startled by the intelligence that Alsina, contrary to all preconceived opinion, had carried the election of the province of Buenos Ayres against his opponent Mitre, and that the ultimate triumph of the latter was by no means certain.

"Exchange, influenced by this intelligence, and by the large requirements of the Government, amounting to £200,000, presented a somewhat weaker aspect, the banks refusing to contribute at 26d., and private bills finding eager takers at 26⅛.

"On the 11th, however, one of the banks reopened at 26d., and was followed in succession by other kindred establishments, and the rate has been firmly maintained until the close of the mail.

"An average business has been done in private bills at 26⅛, 3/16 and ¼, whilst on Paris transactions have been on a limited scale at 360 reis commercial, and 365 to 366 banker's paper. The market closes firm.

"The sales of coffee during the past few days have been of a not unimportant character, but the stock here and at Santos has, notwithstanding, increased during the fortnight under review, and now reaches nearly 400,000 bags of 60 kilos.

"The Neva brings news from the River Plate to the effect that Alsina has retired from the candidature for the presidency of the Argentine Republic, leaving the field open to Dr. Avellaneda and General Mitre. Our exchange market can scarcely fail to be favorably influenced by this reassuring intelligence.

"On Hamburg a small business has been done at 450 private, and 455 Bank paper.

"On Hamburg the Deutsch-Brasilianische Bank is drawing at 456 reis per reichsmaak 90 days sight, and 463 to 464 reis sight.

"The French barque Courrier des Mers, from Bordeaux for Buenos Ayres, was totally lost on the 19th of March at Castilhos, on the Rio Grande do Sul coast. The crew were saved.

"The case of the Deutsch-Brasilianische Bank v. the English Bank of Rio de Janeiro, Limited, came on to-day for hearing.

"The English Bank not appearing to 'conciliate,' the case now goes to the Commercial Tribunal. It is for payment of 120:000$ paid into the English Bank of Rio at Pernambuco, to the credit of the German Bank at Rio."

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND CO.
101--Calle Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to—kee— one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maná & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very lrge amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed inthis city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes sad conditions, who are equally interested in putiing their savinca out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Maua & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM

(Formerly of MONTEVIDEO,)
Associated with Don TOMAJ COQUET.
108 CALLE MAIPU

Having received several very important improvements, viz, :—
Morrison's wonderful little Engine, for cleaning and excavating decayed teeth, preparatory to filling, which does the work with such rapidity and beautiful exactness, that in a very few seconds an otherwise sensitive tooth is prepared for the Gold in a manner unattainable by the disagreeable method of scraping and burning, so well known by those who have experienced the operation.
Also Green's Electric Engine, which took the grand Diploma of Honor at the Vienna Exhibition. The feat of harnessing lightning is fairly done in this neat, efficient, and truly wonderful little machine. By this we manipulate the gold into the most difficult or frail tooth, with the most exquisite exactness, and without danger of fracturing the most delicate enamel. Then, with the same engine, we finish and polish the filling in less than one quarter the time formerly required, and without pain. No patient who has had teeth filled in this manner once, will ever willingly consent to the use of excavators or burr again.
We have also received an immense quantity of the most beautifully carved Artificial Teeth comprising thousands of different shades and forms, from which with our long practical experience we can match any style or feature, complexion, or expression, with such artistic incenes that detection is impossible.
The Plate we use for the atmospheric pressure is the Whalebone Rubber, the lightest and strongest known.
We have been using Nitrous Oxide Gas for the painless Extraction of Teeth for nearly fourteen years, and have administered over 20,000 Times,
2,110 times in this City alone, since August 1872,
And recommend it as the safest anesthetic known. It is nothing new, as it has been tested by thousands of Dentists, and hundreds of thousands of people.
Persons from the Camp and neighboring Towns, can have their Sets of Teeth made in time to return same day, by making an appointment before hand,
